The planetary strengths given here will give you an understanding of the percentage of results that can be obtained in each aspect of the Dasha and Antardasha. These are only calculated based on the position and significance of the respective planets. In cases where there are less than zero, it is better to take care of the Dasha and Antardashas of the respective planets. It is not mean that the higher the percentage of planetary strength, the greater the result, but that your efforts in those matters will bear fruit. On the other hand, having a low percentage of strength means that you should put more effort into those matters. You can see that these have nothing to do with traditional planetary strengths.

Doshas and Remedies

Kaal Sarp Dosha

Kaal Sarp Dosha is considered one of the most significant afflictions, impacting mental and physical well-being. As a hereditary dosha, it often leads to delays and misfortunes. It can make individuals feel unaccomplished and live for others' benefit. This yoga is formed when all planets are positioned between Rahu (the Moon's North Node) and Ketu (the Moon's South Node). A complete Kaal Sarp Yoga is only formed when half of the chart remains unoccupied by planets. If even a single planet lies outside the Rahu-Ketu axis, the Kaal Sarp Yoga is not considered fully formed.

You don't have Kalasarpa dosha in your chart.

Mangal Dosha

Mars is the planet of emotions. In a birth chart, if Mars is well-placed, individuals tend to have better emotional control. However, when Mars is ill-placed, particularly in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th, or 12th house, it can lead to difficulties in managing emotions. This placement often causes problems in marital life due to intense emotional behavior and anger. This Kuja Dosha, also known as Mangal Dosha or Chevvai Dosham, can also result in marriage delays and post-marital issues. Understanding this dosha empowers you to perform appropriate remedies, reducing its negative impact and fostering timely, happy marital life.

Mangal Dosha from Lagna

Dosha Found: Mars is in the 12th house from the Ascendant.

Although Kuja Dosha exists in the chart, its effect is mitigated according to the cancellation rules described in traditional astrological texts.

The effect of Kuja Dosha is reduced for the following reason(s):
- Dosha is cancelled because Mars is in its own sign (Scorpio).

Mangal Dosha from Moon and Venus

No Kuja Dosha from the Moon.

No Kuja Dosha from Venus.

Remedies

Chant the Subrahmanya Stotra daily.
Chant the Kuja Mantra 7,000 times. If you're unable to perform this yourself, you can request a knowledgeable pundit to do it on your behalf.
Donate Toor Dal and red cloth on Tuesdays.
Perform the Kalyanam (marriage ceremony) of Lord Lakshmi Narasimha on Tuesdays.
Some astrologers suggest wearing a Coral gem to reduce the effect of Kuja Dosha, but this isn't always accurate. It's best not to wear it without proper verification.

The ruling deity of this Nakshatra is Brihaspati (the preceptor of the gods), which is why you possess abundant knowledge and devotion. 'Pushya' means 'to nourish'. You naturally attract wealth, happiness, and respect. You are beautiful and pleasant in appearance. Due to your calm and steady nature, those around you, especially women, adore you. Mentality and Lifestyle

You are a confident and intelligent individual with a strong sense of justice. You are also honest and straightforward in your dealings with others. However, you need to be careful about your temper and avoid being too critical of others.
You are not someone who hides things in your heart and says something else on the outside. You speak directly, clearly, and honestly about anything, and you act honestly. You have kindness and a spirit of service. You also do not tolerate deceit and injustice. You want freedom that does not cross boundaries, and you want others to treat you the same way. You have a lot of confidence in yourself. You also have a good understanding of your future. You want to think ahead and follow a plan for any task. Although you are stubborn in some matters, you value the opinions of others. You usually do not make mistakes, and if something goes wrong because of you, you try to calmly accept it and correct it. You love to travel and cannot stay in one place for days. Most of your travels are long-distance, spiritual, and cultural, and you like to travel alone and on adventurous trips. You also frequently visit spiritual centers and temples. You are always looking to learn new things and make new discoveries. You are the best at solving any problem. You understand the problem in front of you and provide the right solution.

You usually do not get emotional, and you try not to show your sadness to the outside world. However, since the eighth house is the significator of the mind and is occupied by the Moon, there is a risk of sometimes being prone to unnecessary fears and misconceptions. Once a fear or a thought enters your mind, it does not leave you easily. You are as emotionally sensitive as you are personally strong. You are especially sensitive to family matters. You do not come to a decision without examining any matter deeply. You need a lot of freedom, and you cannot do any work if there is pressure from others. You also do not touch tasks that are entrusted to you without confidence. You speak directly and honestly about anything. That is why many people seek your advice even in their personal matters. You also give high priority to friendship. You cannot be anywhere without making friends with at least one person. However, you get angry and impatient if there is too much pressure on you. You also respect traditions, customs, and the law. You feel that there is no freedom in the house, so you spend more time outside the house, especially with your friends. You are the best at finding opportunities and using them properly. You love constructive, new ideas, and innovation.

The first thing you need to change is expressing your opinion on people's faces without understanding their thoughts. Even though it may seem right to you, it can hurt the feelings of others. Your relationship may be ruined because of that. Another thing you need to change is that you think you are far ahead of society in your thoughts and look down on others. You should realize that if you think great about one thing, someone else can think great about another thing. Only then will you have good relationships and bonds with everyone.

Education

You are an intelligent and curious individual with a strong thirst for knowledge. You are also hardworking and dedicated to your studies. However, you need to be careful about your tendency to be overconfident and avoid taking shortcuts.
Your ruling planet as a Sagittarius Ascendant is Jupiter for primary education and the Sun for higher education, making them significators of education in your chart. You have a natural inclination towards learning and discovering new information, especially in areas that are difficult for others to comprehend or interpret. However, you prefer hands-on learning over traditional classroom education. You value knowledge over marks and aim to apply what you've learned in exams rather than just memorizing for the sake of exams. You are inclined towards mathematics, law, medicine, spirituality, and technology-related fields. You constantly seek to learn something new and are willing to help your peers with their studies. You do not keep your knowledge to yourself if it can benefit others, and you readily teach others. Many of you pursue post-graduation and even research (Ph.D.) in your field of interest, continuing your education beyond just a bachelor's degree.

Health

You are a healthy and active individual with a strong immune system. However, you need to be careful about your diet and exercise habits to avoid health problems related to your bones, lungs, and liver. You also need to be careful about your mental health and avoid taking things to heart.

Since you generally have a strong body, your physical health is good. The thighs, hip bones, muscles, lungs, and urinary bladder are the organs that are somewhat weak in your body. Due to these, you may be commonly troubled by health problems related to bones, cough, cold, and respiratory problems. It is good to be careful about these and also to have good habits as there is a possibility of liver-related diseases.

Along with physical health, you also need to be careful about your mental health. Since the Moon, the significator of the mind, is the lord of the eighth house of your ascendant, you may be mentally weak. Even if you know that what you believe in is wrong or if you are betrayed by someone you trust, you may not get out of it quickly and may become depressed. Therefore, it is good not to take any matter to heart. This will improve your mental and physical health.

Financial Status

You are a generous and spendthrift individual with a positive attitude towards money. You are also good at managing your finances and making wise investments. However, you need to be careful about your tendency to overspend and avoid impulsive purchases.

Regarding financial earnings and expenditures, you generally do not hold significant reservations. If you have money, you do not hesitate to spend it. Even if you find yourself without funds at a certain time, you don’t shy away from spending others’ money either. Generally, your financial situation is good, so even after significant expenses, you will have enough for your needs. However, if you keep cash on hand, it tends not to stay unspent. It’s advisable for you to save as much as possible or invest in something worthwhile. This will improve your financial status and keep your expenses within limits. Your financial situation will start to improve after the age of 24. Additionally, you will benefit from inherited or parental wealth.

Love and Marriage

You are a loving and responsible individual who is committed to your family. You are also good at resolving conflicts and maintaining harmony in your relationships. However, you need to be careful about your tendency to be impulsive and avoid making decisions in haste.

Your 7th house is under the dominion of Mercury, in the sign of Gemini. Your marital life will be good. The person who loves you will become your life partner. Your behavior, integrity, and responsible nature will bring your spouse closer to you. Even if you travel a lot before marriage, you will reduce traveling post-marriage to focus more on your family. You will have a lot of love and attention for your children. However, your overprotectiveness or excessive caution towards them may lead to differences of opinion as they grow older.

Your anger comes quickly but dissipates just as fast. However, the intensity of your anger can be quite high when you are angry. Giving high importance to sports and entertainment activities may initially cause some impatience in your marital life. But once your wife understands you better, this issue will resolve. Since you perform any task with responsibility, all your family members respect you.

In terms of marriage, unions with individuals having Sagittarius, Gemini, Leo, and Aries ascendants are favorable for you. Compatibility with Taurus, Cancer, and Scorpio ascendants is less, making marriage with them less favorable.

Family life

You are a loving and caring individual who is committed to your family. You are also good at resolving conflicts and maintaining harmony in your relationships. However, you need to be careful about your tendency to be overprotective of your children and avoid putting too much pressure on them.

You enjoy spending time with your family more than with relatives and tend to spend generously on your children and luxuries. You also spend a good amount on charity and philanthropy. Your children will prosper, but there might be some anxiety regarding your first child, or there could be a delay in having children. You hold respect and regard for your father and elders in the family. Your interest and respect for spiritual matters will elevate you to a higher spiritual level.

Professional life

You are a hardworking and dedicated individual who is passionate about your career. You are also good at multitasking and handling multiple responsibilities. However, you need to be careful about your tendency to be overconfident and avoid taking risks.

Mercury and Venus are your career significators. Being the lord of the Ascendant, Jupiter, along with Venus, the lord of the 6th house, and Mercury, the lord of the 10th house, signify knowledge and education, making professions related to teaching, priesthood, spiritual matters, legal fields, high-ranking government positions, construction, technology, and finance favorable for you. Additionally, jobs related to foreign affairs, writing, or journalism are also auspicious for you. Roles that involve authority, advising, project management, and travel are particularly suitable. You do not prefer jobs that require you to be stationary and work under someone. In your view, a profession is not just a means to earn money but a duty to contribute your knowledge and skills to society. Hence, you give high importance to your profession.

Transit Predictions (Jupiter, Saturn, Rahu, Ketu)

Currently, Saturn is transiting the 9th House (Bhagya Sthana / House of Fortune) from your Moon sign.

Saturn Transit Over Pisces Sign From 30/03/2025 03:15 To 03/06/2027 11:05

9th House Saturn:

Saturn in the 9th from Moon tests luck and belief systems. Fortune works, but slowly. You may feel distance with mentors/father figures or delays in long-distance travel/higher education — yet this transit builds real wisdom.

Likely results: disciplined spiritual growth, responsibilities toward elders, slow progress in higher studies/foreign plans, delayed but stable blessings through ethical actions.

Caution: frustration that “luck is not supporting.” Avoid blaming fate; build effort + patience.

Remedies advised: Mild (especially if you feel blocked or have elder/father issues).

Currently, Jupiter is transiting the 12th House (Vyaya Sthana / Expenditure) from your Moon sign.

Jupiter Transit Over Gemini Sign From 05/12/2025 To 02/06/2026

The transit of Jupiter through the 12th house from your Moon sign is technically known as 'Vyaya Guru'. In Vedic astrology, the 12th house represents expenditure, isolation, sleep, and spiritual liberation (Moksha). When the planet of expansion (Jupiter) enters the house of loss, the results are often a mix of material pressure and spiritual growth.

Financial Impact (Shubha Vyaya):

The most visible effect of this transit is on your finances. You may find that money flows out as fast as it comes in. However, unlike malefic planets, Jupiter usually causes 'Shubha Vyaya'—expenditure for auspicious reasons. You might spend heavily on marriages, house ceremonies, children's education, or long-pending family events. While the expenses are unavoidable, they often bring social respect or family happiness. It is advisable to avoid speculative investments or lending money during this time, as recovery might be difficult.

Mental Peace and Health:
The 12th house governs sleep (Sayana Sukha). During this transit, you might experience restless nights or vague anxiety about the future, even if things are going well externally. You may feel a sense of detachment or a desire to be alone. This is not depression, but a spiritual call. It is an excellent time to visit temples, ashrams, or engage in meditation. Health-wise, pay attention to your feet and eyes, and do not ignore minor symptoms related to blood sugar or digestion.

Career and Social Life:
Professional life may feel stagnant or unrewarding during this phase. You might feel that your hard work is not getting the recognition it deserves, or you may face an unwanted transfer to a distant place. Hidden enemies or office politics could disturb your peace of mind. The best strategy now is to work quietly, avoid confrontations with superiors, and strictly follow the rules. This is a period for preparation, not aggressive expansion.

Remedies for 12th House Jupiter (Vyaya Guru):
Since the 12th house represents expenditure and isolation, the remedies are designed to channel this energy into spirituality and charity.

- Charity (Shubha Vyaya): The best way to handle 'Vyaya' (loss) is to voluntarily spend on good causes. Donating money for students' education or doing 'Annadanam' (food donation) on Thursdays turns the loss into merit (Punya).
- Spiritual Practice: Visit a temple of Lord Vishnu or Tirupati Balaji, as they govern the 12th house energies. Applying a saffron or turmeric Tilak on your forehead daily helps strengthen Jupiter's positive rays.
- Sleep Hygiene: To combat insomnia or bad dreams, wash your feet before going to bed and chant 'Om Achyutaya Namaha'. Sleeping on a yellow bedsheet can also help induce better sleep during this transit.

Currently, Rahu is transiting the 8th House from your Moon sign (known as Ashtama Rahu).

Rahu (N.Node) Transit Over Aquarius Sign From 18/05/2025 To 05/12/2026
The transit of Rahu through the 8th house from your Moon sign is technically known as 'Astama Rahu'. In Vedic astrology, the 8th house represents longevity, sudden events, secrets, and transformation. When the shadow planet Rahu enters this deep and mysterious house, it often brings about a period of unpredictability and psychological pressure.

Health and Diagnosis:

One of the distinct characteristics of Rahu in the 8th house is confusing health symptoms. You may feel physical discomfort or pain that medical tests fail to explain immediately. This is often due to stress manifesting physically. It is crucial to stay away from self-medication. Old or chronic ailments might resurface suddenly. Special care should be taken regarding food poisoning, allergies, or infections during this time.

Financial Secrecy and Risk:

Rahu here creates a temptation for 'easy money' or hidden financial dealings. You might be tempted to invest in high-risk schemes, lotteries, or unverified businesses. However, this is a dangerous trap. The 8th house also rules taxes and insurance; ensure all your paperwork is clean, as Rahu can bring sudden scrutiny or penalties from authorities. Avoid lending large sums of money, as the chances of recovery are slim.

Psychological Fear and sudden Events:

The most challenging aspect of Astama Rahu is mental anxiety. You may experience 'Mrityu Bhaya'—a vague fear of death or danger to loved ones—without any real cause. You might face sudden hurdles in ongoing projects just when they are about to finish. The key to navigating this transit is surrender and patience. Do not try to force outcomes. Worshiping Goddess Durga or Lord Bhairava is traditionally suggested to calm the sudden energies of this transit.

Remedies for 8th House Rahu (Astama Rahu):

This is an intense transit involving health and sudden events. Remedies here are strictly for protection ('Kavacha').

- Worship: Lord Bhairava or Lord Shiva in his Ugra (fierce) form controls the sudden energies of the 8th house. Visit a Shiva temple on Saturdays and offer water mixed with black sesame seeds.
- Donation: Donate black blankets or umbrellas to the homeless or workers. This helps mitigate the 'hidden' physical suffering caused by Astama Rahu.
- Lifestyle: Avoid dark blue or black clothes as much as possible. Be extremely cautious with legal paperwork. If you face unexplained health issues, keeping some barley (Jau) under your pillow at night and feeding it to birds in the morning is a suggested remedy.

Currently, Ketu is transiting the 2nd House (Dhana Sthana / Family) from your Moon sign.

Ketu (S.Node) Transit Over Leo Sign From 18/05/2025 To 05/12/2026

The transit of Ketu into the 2nd house from your Moon sign acts as a purifying but restrictive force on your resources and family life. In Vedic astrology, the 2nd house governs 'Dhana' (wealth), 'Vak' (speech), and 'Kutumba' (family). Ketu is a separatist planet; its presence here often creates a sense of detachment or dissatisfaction with your material possessions and family bonds.

Financial Constraints:

During this period, you may feel that money is getting 'blocked'. Even if you earn well, you might not be able to save or enjoy your wealth due to sudden, unavoidable expenses. You may develop a disinterest in material accumulation, or conversely, feel frustrated that your financial planning is constantly failing. It is strictly advised not to lend money to anyone, as it will likely never return and will spoil relations.

Speech and Communication:

The 2nd house is the seat of speech ('Vak Sthana'). Ketu here can make your speech blunt, harsh, or overly critical. You might speak the 'bitter truth' at the wrong time, hurting the feelings of others without intending to. You may also find that family members misunderstand your silence as arrogance. A conscious effort to speak sweetly and diplomatically is the only way to avoid unnecessary conflicts.

Family and Health:

You might feel emotionally distant from your immediate family, even if you are living under the same roof. There could be frequent minor arguments regarding money or food habits. Health-wise, the 2nd house rules the face, teeth, and right eye. You may face dental issues, mouth ulcers, or eye infections during this transit. It is better to address even minor symptoms immediately rather than neglecting them.

Remedies for 2nd House Ketu (Dhana Ketu):

Since this transit causes bitter speech and financial blocks, the remedies focus on sweetness and detachment.

- Worship: Worship Lord Ganesha to remove obstacles in savings. Chanting 'Om Gan Ganpataye Namaha' before starting any financial discussion helps prevent misunderstandings.
- Donation: To cure the 'bitter speech' defect of Ketu, donate sweet food items (like Laddu or Jaggery) to poor children or in a temple. Feeding sesame balls (Til) to birds is also beneficial.

- Lifestyle: Practice 'Mauna' (silence) for at least 15 minutes a day. Avoid using harsh words even if provoked. Applying saffron on the navel and tongue is a specific Tantric remedy to control speech defects during this time.
